Junior Kindergarten

JK spent the week learning about Saints in honor of All Saints Day. The students really enjoyed seeing the 2nd graders dressed up as Saints in the “Wax Museum” and being able to identify some of the Saints they studied. They were also able to spend time with their Faith Buddies at Mass. The faith in action students also came to the classroom to help the students with an art project associated with All Saints Day. It was a wonderful opportunity to see the middle schoolers demonstrate what it means to be a Charlottesville Catholic student.

Important Dates

Thursday November 10th Mass will be live streamed from the Chapel.

Religion

Students learned about saints in preparation for All Saints Day. At our Mass on Tuesday the students enjoyed sitting with their faith buddies from 8th grade. They will be doing this at each first of the month Mass. It is Vocation Awareness next week and the students will be learning not only about religious vocations but the vocations of a single and married life.
