Friday Newsletter

1st Grade

Announcements

Uniforms

Many of the students have grown in the last few months. Please check your child's uniforms to make sure they have not gotten too tall for them. As a reminder, spring uniform will start on Monday, April 3.

Social Studies

In Social Studies we studied Dr. Seuss the last week and wrapped up that fun study this week! You should be proud of all the reading our class has been getting in! We read aloud the Who Was Theodor Geissel.

Math

For Math, we are wrapping up telling time on an analog clock. Our focus has been on the hour and half hour. Your students should be able to tell what time it is on the hour or half hour! I'm so impressed with how quickly they picked this up!

This week we introduced pictographs and bar graphs. Next week we will continue our graph unit as well as a special Pot of Gold Math Mystery!

Language Arts/Reading/Writing

In Reading and Writing, we finished our Dr. Seuss week, fitting in Green Eggs in Ham, The Cat and the Hat, Wacky Wednesday, Oh the Places You'll Go, Bartholomew and the Oobleck. As well as tying in our Social Studies read aloud Who Was Theodor Geisel. We worked on Seuss writing prompts. We have been focusing on writing full sentences and remembering to date our work.

This week we have started our Folktale unit. We compared a fun story titled, Little Red and the Hungry Lion to Little Red Riding Hood. We read The Three Billy Goats. As we have read our stories, we have focused on the folktale story elements: good, evil, and which wins-good or evil. For grammar, we have been focusing on adverbs, particularly adverbs of time.

Religion

In Religion, we have been continuing to utilize our Lent devotional, I hope you are able to use them at home as well!

Science

Last week we enjoyed going to the science lab a few times. We created popsicle stick puzzles of The Cat and The Hat, we made hot air balloons for our Oh the Places You'll Go project and we made oobleck!

Other Information

After attending the spelling bee a few weeks ago, your students asked to have their own spelling bee. We will have an informal spelling bee in class next week. This will be for our class only and will be during the school day. I plan to do this on Thursday. I will be sending home a spelling list of words Dr. Seuss used when writing the Cat and the Hat. I may add a few difficult words if we progress to where everyone is able to spell all the words. If your child would like to review. Please remind them this is just for fun!

Also, Hanorah will be providing the class with pizza for lunch on Monday to celebrate her birthday! If you order lunch or pack, you will be able to skip this day! Thank you Hanorah!
